

Protection of Vulnerable Adults (POVA)

Overview

Every social care employee should receive training in the Protection of Vulnerable Adults in order to understand how and why people abuse others, how to recognise signs and symptoms and how to report any incident

Outline programme

The training programme covers the following topics;

- What is POVA?
- Who is a vulnerable adult?
- Definition of abuse
- Types of abuse
- Signs and Symptoms
- Whistle Blowing
- Reporting alleged abuse

Other information

Designed for: All employees

Course duration: One day programme

New Directions Certificate Issued

